

Golf benefit brings more than $3,100 for Water for People

The Water for People golf benefit, May 9, at Quail Run Golf Course in Columbus, raised more than $3,100 for the organization, according to Craig Reinsch, Olsson Associates, event chair.

A total of 54 golfers and 14 hole sponsors participated in the event. Since the golf benefit was initiated in 2005, the Section has raised more than $9,750 for Water for People.

The first place team, included: Avery Quakerbush, Jim Fogerty, James Moore, Lincoln Water System, and Ricky Greene, Kids Planet Inc. Child Development Center.

Second place went to: Bruce Dreessen, Griffin Pipe; Joe McLaughlin, Matt Springer, HD Supply Waterworks, and Don Rutjens, Rutjens Construction.

The third place team included: Andrew Hansen, Black and Veatch; Nick McElvain, John Miriovsky, Lincoln Water System, and Jeff Selby, Pentair Pump.

The following individuals won hole/flag prizes: Adam Darbro, Olsson Associates; Jim Fogerty, Lincoln Water System; Ricky Greene, Kids Planet Inc. Child Development Center; Jim Hrouda, Steve Noren, City of Hickman; Troy Lagasse, North Core Boring Co., and Matt Springer, HD Supply Waterworks.

Mission Clay Pipe donated three golf clubs and they were won by Steve Kelley, City of Beatrice; Jerry Obrist, Nick McElvain, Lincoln Water System.

In 2007, Water For People provided more than 108,000 people with safe drinking water resources and/or improved sanitation facilities. The goal is to increase the number of people receiving sustainable water and sanitation services from 200 to 1,000 new people per day by 2011.

Special thanks to William Alms, David Graiver and Brent Hanson from the UNL, who assisted at the event. Thank you to all the participants, sponsors and flag prize donators for helping the Nebraska Section AWWA support Water For People as they work towards their millennium goals.
